FLOWER ROTA The Flower List is available to allow people to donate either money or flowers on a particular Sunday in the year. These flowers are then delivered to those who are ill, those who are housebound, those who maybe think they are forgotten about because increasing frailty stops them coming each week, those who just need to know someone cares.
Please speak to June, or add your name to the list in the vestibule if you wish to provide flowers for any of the Sundays not yet covered.
You can either give money and some one else will arrange flowers for you or you can buy and arrange them yourself.

CHILDREN'S CHURCH If there are any dates that you are unable to do, please try to swap with someone or contact Ann.

If you are unable to come on any particular Sunday for any of the rotas, please try and swap with someone. Thank you.

CHURCH NEWS

On Sunday 8th December we had our last Family Fun Day of 2024, when the children (and their parents) enjoyed crafts, games, food and a Bible story.

Our Nativity took place during the service on 15th December. The Nativity story contained the names of chocolates woven into the story, such as Celebrations and Mars. When the congregation heard one, the first to raise their hand got the relevant chocolate. Anna judged who was first and one of the children delivered it.

We had children and adults taking part as Mary, Joseph, angels, shepherds, sheep, donkey, star, wise men. The congregation helped sing the first verse of several carols.

After taking part in the Nativity, the children went through to the hall where activities were provided while the rest of the service continued in the sanctuary.

The congregation were then invited to come through to the hall to have a cup of tea or coffee and some cake, as we were celebrating the birth of Christ and it was also 25 years since Rev Julia was ordained into the ministry.

As a follow up to the Alpha Course that was held at the end of last year, for 5 Thursdays, starting on 23rd January we had a Pudding and Study evening. At six o'clock we sat down to enjoy a selection of puddings and a cup of tea or coffee and a chat before having a chance to familiarise ourselves with the Bible, ask questions and have discussions in small groups about some selected verses.

If you get the chance to attend an Alpha Course, or a Pudding and Study event, I would thoroughly recommend it, whether you are a new Christian or have been one for many years.

MESSAGE FROM OUR MINISTER – REV DR JULIA PIZZUTO-POMACO

Path to the Cross

This morning as I was walking our little dog Libby, I began to think about Lent which will soon be starting. Ministers always think about these seasons much further ahead than others. For most of us our minds are still in the cold weather but I have seen at least one snowdrop in my flower beds and that gives me hope that Spring is on the way!

As I took my morning walk, I thought of Jesus walking the path to the cross. What was it like for him to know what was ahead and yet stay steadfast despite surely overwhelming emotion? In the garden of Gethsemane Jesus prayed so earnestly to accept his Father's will that his sweat became like drops of blood (Luke 22:44). We remember that from the cross Jesus cried 'My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?' as his agony and pain clouded his thinking. Jesus was not unaware that the cross was coming. He told his disciples that his suffering was to be expected (Mark 8:31). He tried to help them accept that victory would not come without cost.

As we take steps each day in our lives we are faced with challenges too. Perhaps some of us feel the ache of age, the quiet of loneliness and the pain of illness. Perhaps broken relationships, additions, challenges we never expected to face, responsibilities that mount up and so much more seek to overcome us. Thankfully we have a Saviour who goes before us. Jesus took on our infirmities, was willing to bear our burdens and leads us on our most difficult paths.

Each step we take we have a Saviour walking hand in hand with us. Take time to listen to his love, to allow it to flow over you and bring healing into your cracked places. Make space during this Winter and Lenten Season to read even small bits of Jesus story. Remind yourself of his road to the cross and his ultimate victory! Start with one of the gospels and maybe read just a small bit every day. Allow yourself to regularly look forward to listening and hearing from God. You will find that as God's presence grows bigger in your life and you become more aware of him beside you, your worries might just start looking smaller.

I do not wish to diminish real worries and struggles but to encourage you to not let the difficulty prevent you from feeling the warmth of the resurrection! Though we know the cross was brutal and inhumane, the power of the resurrection has triumphed! The overcoming of evil and our sin has the power to change lives; the power to change our life.

The message of the cross is: do not give up! We serve a risen Lord who is alive today!

May God's abundant love and grace be evident to you now and always.

With love from the manse, Rev. Julia

New Prayer Group-Ministry and Mission Peterhead New Parish

If you are willing to pray for our church's ministry and mission and have an email please contact Ruth Murray at ruthmurray65@yahoo.co.uk.

You can then email updates and be aware of any particular prayer requests there might be, such as the changes we are making to Sundays Together-Family Fun Days or Holiday Club. If you are involved in a group/ministry of the church and would like prayer for a special event, struggle, challenge or praise please contact Ruth Murray so she can share it with the larger group. Only prayer requests that are specifically communicated to Ruth will be shared with the larger email group (contact her via email or talk with her at church). If you don't have an email please still be praying for our church's ministry and mission! The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective (James 5:16).

THE GUILD

Unfortunately we had to cancel our November meeting due to the adverse weather conditions. We waited till the last minute, in the hope that we would wake up on the morning of 20th November to find that the snow had disappeared overnight. Of course it had not, so we hurriedly phoned our speaker and all our members to make sure they did not come out. We did not want to risk anyone falling on the icy pavements.

Fortunately by 2nd December, the snow had gone and we had a good turnout when we joined the Senior Ladies for a most enjoyable Christmas Lunch in the Palace Hotel. Adam was unable to join us that day, so Sheila Bain kindly came along to play for us to sing some carols which made it feel more like Christmas. Hazel had prepared a fun quiz for us which taxed our memories, and also read a poem, entitled "Christmas Fairy", about the trials of the fairy on the top of the Christmas tree, including having pine needles up her bum.

The first meeting in 2025 took place in the Palace Hotel where we enjoyed our traditional Scottish Burns meal before settling back to listen to a variety of Scottish poetry. Those reciting were Babs Wood, Isobel Stewart, June Cowie, Sheila Marshall and Hazel Ross. Adam Horton kindly came along to play for us as we sang well known Scottish songs. A lovely afternoon to chase away the winter blues.

Our speaker for the February meeting was Maurice Bradley, aided by his wife Jean who kindly agreed to play the piano for our hymn singing.

Maurice had wanted to go to Africa since he was a six year old child and he and Jean had tried to go a couple of times, but something had always stopped them until at last all stumbling blocks were removed and they went to Uganda, where they both taught—maths and English among other things, as well as sharing the love of God with the people—and quickly came to love the place and the people. They admitted that they would not have been ready the first two times they wanted to go, and that God had cleared the way for them at just the right time. They spent 17 years there during term times and came home during the holidays. They still keep in touch and consider three of the young people they met as members of their family. Now Maurice goes back and holds conferences in Uganda. Maurice had many slides and stories about their time in Uganda and we were so engrossed that we did not notice the time passing. We also had a Bring and Buy sale, which brought in the sum of £77.00, which will help to support our Guild projects.

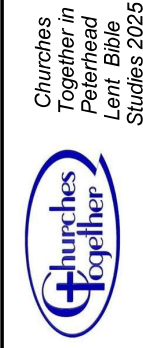

In our meeting on 19th March, June Cowie will let us know about the four new Guild projects which we will support over the next three years and Gordon Hay and friends will provide some musical entertainment.

On 22nd March we hope you will come along and support our Buttery Morning, the proceeds from which will go towards the Guild Projects and a contribution to our Church for the use of the hall.

American Businesswoman Anne F Beiler once wrote "My philosophy is Life is hard, but God is good. Try not to confuse the two"

The air ambulance provides a faster and smoother service and it is deemed very serious then they can have specialist doctors on board. Meantime in Perth training in the use of night vision goggles means that the service can be available till 7:00pm in the winter months which will make a big difference. He finished his excellent talk with lots of good advice on how to live a healthier life, improve our breathing, take care of our bodies and smile lots.

SENIOR LADIES

Our first meeting of 2025 was cancelled due to the wintry weather. However some of the Senior ladies joined with the Guild for their 'Burns' meal on Wed. 15th January at the Palace Hotel. A lovely time was had by all.

On the 20th January we were delighted to have Deacon Douw (pronounced Doh) Grobler, the Methodist Minister, as our guest speaker. He and his wife Ans came to Peterhead two and a half years ago all the way from South Africa. They love Peterhead and along with another Methodist minister are responsible for a big area which stretches from just south of Aberdeen to Inverness. His first story of a long term prisoner called Thomas who had done unspeakable things under the influence of drink and drugs and who was dead inside had everyone listening intently. At the time they were volunteers in a prison ministry. As Christians they tried to facilitate meetings between victims and perpetrators. When Thomas related what he had done in graphic detail Thomas definitely came under the heading of 'difficult to love'. And yet the volunteers were moved to love him. Love changed Thomas so that now he is totally repentant and an active member of the Church. He and Ans both attended Christian camps and were led to become involved in Prison Fellowship International. He explained the difference between Biblical Justice, Criminal Justice and Restorative Justice. They studied Restorative Justice in Toronto. Restorative Justice being very much victim centred with the aim to help the healing process. They also have a passion for nature and related Safari stories to us. They will be setting up "The Sycamore Project" in Peterhead which aims to organise Conversation Cafes, outings, picnics etc. for the families of prisoners and also for the families of the staff. Volunteers from other churches and the community will be invited to get involved. It was a very interesting afternoon with a powerful message.

On the 3rd February Ewan Milne came to tell us all about the Buchanhaven Heritage Society.

It was started 11 years ago and is run by 6 volunteers. They restored the old school building to it's former glory and their motto is "Saving the past for the future." They have received so many photos that they have been put into more than 400 books. All this work was done during covid by Elizabeth, Ewan's wife. He started by showing us videos of these photos the first one covering life in Crosbie and Blackwells. It seemed like the whole of Peterhead worked there. Then there were all the schools of the time, Euclid, Kirkburn Mills, the former shops and the old picnics which would take several double decker bus loads of excited families to the destination of choice. They loan out folders of the photos to care homes to bring back happy memories for many. Lots of groups make use of the hall and many activities take place there. A great community spirit has grown round this enterprising Heritage Society so that when they hold special events they are always very well supported. The ladies very much enjoyed being taken down memory lane.

Pushp Vaid, a helicopter pilot for 44 years, was our speaker on the 17th March. His talk was all about the Scottish Charity Air Ambulance. His career began in the Indian Air Force in 1963 and he was decorated for his service during the Indian/Pakistan War. Later he moved to Britain where he continued to fly helicopters. He was one of only two survivors from the helicopter disaster near Shetland when the Chinook helicopter plunged into the sea after a mechanical failure. Therefore he could speak from personal experience of being rescued by an air ambulance. In areas such as Scotland people can die if help does not get to remote locations in time. Each bright yellow coloured air ambulance has a pilot and 2 medics on board. The charity which depends on donations and fund raising pays for 2 helicopters in Scotland with a third one on standby if needed. The 2 other helicopters are government funded. There are usually more than 2 callouts a day. Every mission costs £4,500 and it is reckoned that by 2030 the charity will need to raise £15,000,000 per year.

CHOIR NEWS

It's been a wee while since Christmas, and the memories of putting up the Christmas tree and ornaments are fading fast. Christmas can be a busy time for many of us, with presents to buy and wrap, Christmas cards to write and post, ordering the turkey and visits from friends and family.

We, the choir, had a few busy weeks prior to December, preparing introits and anthems for the Sundays during advent. Some of the pieces we used were ones we knew and had used during previous Christmas periods. Others were new to us and took a bit of rehearsing to prepare for singing in the church. All of the pieces were well received and sounded wonderful in the church.

The choir also attended the Senior Ladies Christmas Carol Service held in the church, where, among the pieces we sang were several we had used in the Sundays during advent services. It was a wonderful afternoon, and it was uplifting to hear those attending joining in with the choir in singing well known, and well loved Christmas carols. The cup of tea and sweet mince-meat pies went down a treat.

On Saturday 26th April the choir are holding a Buttery Morning from 10.00 - 11.30am. This is in support of the work of John Pizzuto-Pomaco and the Scripture Union. We are all looking forward to seeing you at this event.

WORK PARTY NEWS

We enjoyed a Christmas Lunch together on 5th December, before having a break until 16th January. We had a lot of goods donated to us to keep us busy during January. On average we pack six boxes every Thursday. We hope to have our target of 100 by the end of February, so we can get them to Dundee in time for the next container going to Ekwendeni.

The latest news from Malawi is that container 14 has had problems in reaching Ekwendeni, but they are working hard to remedy this. The rains have started, so they are hoping for good crops this year. Generally things are going well. Eden Farm is progressing well with tomatoes flourishing in the greenhouses and this has created jobs for four ladies from vulnerable families. The maize mill is now generating profit though it has to operate at a lower level because of the shortage of fuel. The pigs have been sold off prior to the piggery being relocated to Bula Farm, where a larger one will be built. Chickens will be ready for sale in about three weeks. The bananas at Bula Farm are nearly ready, so will be harvested soon. The children are now into netball and football and improving all the time. This is beneficial for their overall development.

We have also contributed to the "Light a Library" project, which enables children to do their homework after dark. How much we take for granted when we can just push a switch and have light!

All in all, things are progressing well in Malawi. We are happy to continue to be able to contribute in our own small way and we are thankful to have so much support in doing so.

On 20th February, work party members, along with a few other friends, were invited to join Maureen Simpson for a lovely lunch, as well as birthday cake, at the Palace Hotel, to celebrate her 80th birthday. Maureen has been a stalwart of the Work Party for many years and we wish her many happy returns of her birthday.

If you have any spare time, even a couple of hours a week, and would be interested in becoming a sitter, which would include visiting houses, having a cuppa and a good old blether, if you would like a getaway in one of the two caravans we have in Fochabers, one of which is equipped for the disabled and the other a bit more modern, if you would like information about getting a sitter, if you would like any general information for the elderly —

Please contact the number above or pop in and see us during opening times.

Julie Andrew's song My Favourite things

To commemorate her 79th Birthday Julie Andrews sang this version of her famous song from the Musical 'Sound of Music' "My favourite things"

It is specially funny if you sing it

Botox and nose drops and needles for knitting,
Walkers and handrails and new dental fittings,
Bundles of magazines tied up in string, These are a few of my favourite things.
Cadillacs and cataracts, hearing aids and glasses,
Polident and Fixodent and false teeth in glasses,
Pacemakers, golf carts and porches with swings,
These are a few of my favourite things.
When the pipes leak, When the bones creak,
When the knees go bad,
I simply remember my favourite things,
And then I don't feel so bad.

Hot tea and crumpets and corn pads for bunions,
No spicy hot food or food cooked with onions,
Bathrobes and heating pads and hot meals they bring,
These are a few of my favourite things.
Back pain, confused brains and no need for sinnin',
Thin bones and fractures and hair that is thinnin'
And we won't mention our short shrunken frames,
When we remember our favourite things.
When the joints ache, When the hips break,
When the eyes grow dim,
Then I remember the great life I've had
And then I don't feel so bad.

A sense of humour is a major defence against minor troubles!

GIRLS' BRIGADE

The girls are carrying on with their badge work. The Explorers are still exploring 'space' - learning about the planets and doing crafts and drawings relating to the theme.

The Juniors have finished their 'Friendship' topic and are now on to science experiments. We have made plastic milk, made volcanoes erupt. They are now looking at the story of the lost Sheep.

We had fun at our Christmas party, with games, snacks and gifts.

Some of the girls took part in our church's nativity service.

We are now thinking about the Divisional Competition in March, when some of the girls will be chosen to represent our company.

Also on the horizon is our open night, so we are starting to prepare items for that.

Our butterfly morning raised the fantastic sum of £771.67. We would like to say a big thank you to everyone who came along, supported, donated, or helped in any way at our butterfly morning.

It was lovely to see so many people there and the buzz in the hall was great.

The Newest Nonagenarians

Over the past six weeks, as a congregation, we have celebrated the 90th birthdays of three valued and active members of Peterhead New Parish Church.

Isobel Sutherland is a regular attendee at worship and at Work Party where she enjoys not only the knitting but also the great companionship of this group. Isobel takes it all in and always has a quick, humorous response when put on the spot. Perhaps less well-known has been her contribution to the Flower Festival here – on one memorable occasion, Isobel, when setting up her display, realised that she had exactly the same props as one of the others. No problem for the intrepid Isobel who at the age of 88, simply went home and spent the night knitting figures to complement her display. She brought them in next morning, in time for the opening.

For many years, Babs Wood served in both the West Associate Church and Trinity Parish Church as a Board Member, taking her turn welcoming people and behind the scenes counting the offering and serving at after church teas. When counting the money, Babs, according to her training in the world of work, always made sure the notes were stacked face up and according to the 'bank'. She still takes her turn at the door, attends Senior Ladies, bakes legendary pancakes and is a most efficient 'trolley dolly'.

Jimmy Copland is our senior office bearer in chronological years, though not in terms of years of service. He is an active elder, and in the days of the West Associate Church and Trinity Parish Church, served on Congregational Board, latterly as Clerk to the Board and also as Session Clerk. Jimmy loves people of all ages and people love him – from the little Syrian baby at 4 months old, bouncing on his lap while he sings to him in Doric to the late Armour Dalziel, who, on her first Sunday at Peterhead New Parish Church, found herself being helped up the step by Jimmy then taken by the arm down the aisle to a seat. This developed into a real trust where Armour was most put out if Jimmy was not there for her but speaking to someone else.

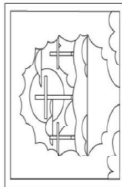

Each of these in their own individual way, makes our church, our fellowship a happier place. We wish them all 'Many Happy Returns' and thank each of them for their quiet contribution.

Through trials and anguish, His love was displayed,
A sacrifice offered, our debts were repaid.
In gratitude we gather, with hearts open wide,
For in giving His all, He became our guide.

Each moment of silence, each breath that we share
Is the legacy born from love's tender care.
In the shadow of hope, His light shines so clear,
A reminder of blessings throughout the year.
